FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. How do I apply to sit for an exam?

Discuss with your teacher about whether it is appropriate for you to sit for an exam. If you both agree to go ahead, please make sure you inform the office by emailing info@encoreschoolofmusic.co.nz. The office will then contact you with an online enrolment form to complete. This online form must be completed by the closing date (as stated above) of the exam you are interested in.

2. What will it cost to sit an exam?

There are four items that you may be invoiced for if you choose to sit for an exam:

- An exam fee set by Trinity – see table below.
- An exam music book or workbook (approx $20 - $50):
  - Practical exams – this will contain a selection of songs/pieces/exercises to select from.

- Theory exams – this will contain the skills and exercises required and sample exam paper.
- Other resources e.g. sheet music, backing track. Most exams don't require these but some exams, such as singing exams, might.
- An administration fee of $20.00

You may also want to take into account the additional cost of an accompanist if you require one for your exam (please refer below).

3. What type of exam and grade level should I sit for?

Your Encore! teacher has knowledge about the requirements for each exam and what might suit you best. Therefore it is an Encore! requirement that students engage in discussion with their teacher before signing up for any exams, and that the teacher's recommendations are adhered to.

4. What are the requirements for each type of exam and grade level?

Music Exam basic structure:

- Three (or sometimes four) pieces
- Technical work featuring scales & arpeggios, exercises or orchestral extracts
- Supporting tests – choose two from a selection including sight reading, aural, musical knowledge and improvising.

Rock & Pop Exam basic structure:

- Three songs
- Session skills – choose either Improvising or Playback

You can go to <http://www.trinitycollege.co.uk> to download syllabuses for the exam(s) you're interested in. These provide specific information as to the requirements for each exam/grade level and the skills/knowledge examiners will be assessing. Encore! also has a selection of these syllabuses in our basket of resources.

5. What if I require a musical accompanist for my exam?

It is your responsibility to organise an accompanist if you require one for your exam (whether it be for live accompaniment or for recording purposes); this includes liaising with them to attend lessons/rehearsals, providing them with sheet music, payments etc. Encore! does not currently provide accompanists for exams, however we may know of accompanists who may be available so let us know if you need help with that.

7. What if my exam is scheduled at the same time as my Encore! lesson or class?

You will find out well ahead of time the actual date/time for your exam, so please make sure you inform us if there is a clash.

Individual lesson students – As per usual policy, if you provide us with notice of your absence (by 4.00pm the day before your lesson) we can provide you with a catchup lesson at the end of term. Unfortunately we cannot provide more than one catchup lesson per term.

Group class students – Group classes will continue to be held regardless of absences so we are unable to provide a refund for any group classes missed. In situations where the majority of the class will be absent due to an exam, e.g. Theory class, we may be able to cancel the class and reschedule it for catchup day.

We trust you will gain a great deal of enjoyment and musical accomplishment in the process of sitting for Trinity exams. If you have any questions that are not answered in this information sheet please don't hesitate to contact us!
